

Dr. Toluwani Akaehomen, known as Dr. Phenomenal, is a dynamic leadership catalyst, keynote speaker, and business enterprise development coach who inspires purpose-driven transformation in individuals, organisations, and communities.

She is the Lead Consultant at Vantage Dymensions Leadership and People Development, Founder and Director of Programmes at the Roegate Institute, and the visionary behind HergenuityAfrika — Ireland's pioneering entrepreneurship initiative for women of Black and immigrant backgrounds. A 2024 local election candidate and trusted voice in community leadership, she also serves on several boards focused on equity, innovation, and civic empowerment.

Dr. Toluwani has been described as dynamic, insightful, and passionate, with a presence and energy that is both palpable and positive. With a genuine, relatable, and authentic style, she connects deeply with audiences and brings clarity to critical conversations around leadership development, personal growth, and women and youth edu-powerment.

Her signature message, "Start Where You Are," inspires leaders to embrace their story, align with purpose, and build a legacy of influence and impact.

A proud wife to a spirit-filled husband and mother to three brilliant adult children and one phenomenal, soccer-talented teen, Dr. Toluwani brings both lived experience and strategic expertise to every room she enters.

Whether on stage, at a roundtable, or in community spaces, she speaks with soul, leads with vision, and empowers others to live and lead phenomenally.
